Two Torn From Coat of Thomas D. Greenman Prove Him Mystic Transom Burglar—He is Bound Over to Superior Court-Stolen Traveling Bag Helps in His Identity-Arrests During 1915 Total 173.

Thomas D. Greenman, who with and contained articles taken from the Henry Martell broke and entered the Fitch store. store of the C. W. Willard company and committed larceny therein on the night of Oct, 14, 1912, is in the police toils again, with indications that he will pay the penalty for his crime. The revolvers and other articles stolen from the Willard store were found in from the Willard store were found in the hay loft of a barn in Canal street, and Greenman and Martell were promptly arrested, found probably gullty, and held for trial in the su-perior court for Washington county. They pleaded guilty at the November term and both were placed on proba-tion by Judge Baker. Last May Green-man was penalized in the Third dis-trict court. Westerly, for intextication trict court, Westerly, for intoxication revelling and fighting. Martell is now in Kingston jail awaiting trial on the charge of attempting to break into and enter the store of E. M. Dodge & Co. a closed since Friday night, it was discovered that they had been entered by the transom route and that considerable of the stock and some money had been taken. Deputy Sheriff J. E. F. Brown of Mystic learned that a young fellow had left some of the stolen goods in the Mystic railway station, had purchased a ticket for Westerly, but did not wait to board the train. These facts, with a description of the young fellow who had purchased the ticket, were conveyed to Deputy Sheriff William H. Casey of Pawcatuck, and that officer immediately suspected Greenman, and went in search of him, accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Brown and Fred S. Opie, in the Opie automoaccompanied by Deputy Sheriff Brown and Fred S. Opie, in the Opie automobile, Mr. Opie being interested in the ownership of the Fitch store.

Shortly after 10 o'clock Tuesday night they found Greenman walking in the highway near the Rathbun place in Quiambaug. He was arrested and taken to Mystic, the section that lies within the town of Groton, where the stores that were entered are located. stores that were entered are located. Greenman is a resident of Pawcatuck and has an intimate acquaintance with Sheriff Casey. He denied any know-ledge of the burglaries, although at the time of the arrest he was wearing Eromons stores. Judge Latimer found probable cause for holding Greenman for trial in the superior court for New torn from Greenman's coat, one drop-ling outside and the other inside the store. These were picked up and pre-served and developed into evidence against the accused. The buttons had been replaced on the coat, but of a pattern different from the two found, which match the other buttons an

Another incident in connection with the burglaries and the arrest of Greenman which indicates his guilt. The Emmons store carries a burglary invurance policy, and a representative from Boston of the insuring company was at the store Monday to ascertain the loss. After completing the exam-ination he went to the railway station to get a train for Boston. While waitthere he noticed a young fellow in mpish attire carrying a sort of trampish attire car millionaire hand bag millionaire hand lag. His suspicion was as once aroused. He saw the fellow stride up and down the walting room, step up to the ticket office, buy a ticket to Westerly, then step out on the platform and await the arrival of the train. The Boston man immediately telephoned to the Emmons store and Manager Clift responded. Clift want to the platform and looked Greenman over and then telephoned for man over and then telephoned for Deputy Sheriff Brown, Greenman recognized Clift, and when Sheriff Brown arrived Greenman had gone, leaving the traveling bag on the platform. The plane of the platform of the p bag was taken from the Emmons store bus and some other organizations in

It was at this point that Sheriff Casey was called into the case. Another person was suspected of the crime, but Sheriff Casey declared that Greenman was the fellow they wanted, as he fully answered the description. There have been several breaks within the past three months in Westerly, Stonington and Mystic that have not been detected and which were committed by burglars who are familiar with the conditions in this section, and officers are of the opinion that some of the mystery surrounding them could be solved by Greenman or Martell, or both.

During 1915 Chief of Police Thomas E Brown and his force made 173 arrests, as follows: Intoxication 78, vioinsane 12. runkard 13, revelling and fighting 9, quor raids 8, assault 8, keeping liquor month ago.

They Will Be "Drug on Market."

Washington, Dec. 29. — Professor Emily G. B. Balsch, of Wellesley college told the American Sociological society here today that one of the effects of war on the status of women would be to make them a "Drug on the market."

"It may be that in more primitive times, such a situation would be a cause of polygamy," she said. "In our day it will mean a vast overplus of women. Men will return not only with importance enhanced by the glory of the battlefield, but with a scarcity value.

"A second and conflicting effect is that women, being more necessary, become more important instead of less. A third effect will be a great increase of unmarried women. Another result is that there is forming under our eyes a new sex—international. Some one ward, Mrs. George E. Zimmerman,
